- a signature Kids Teaching Kids Event

proudly supporting the Indigenous Literacy Foundation

by holding a Great Book Swap

HOSTED BY: Tinana State School, Wednesday 5th September

Tinana State School is hosting a multi-school Sustainability & STEAM Symposium on Wednesday 5th September, 2017. The event will be held on Indigenous Literacy Day and we will celebrate again by raising money for the cause with the Great Book Swap! The Symposium will proudly be a 'Kids Teaching Kids' event in which students will run their own presentations and participate in partner facilitated workshops. Join us for a day of teaching, learning and networking for all who care about STEAM and sustainability.

All workshops are linked to the Australian Curriculum!

Come along for a great day of fun and activities including:

- 🌱 school presentations around Sustainability & STEAM linked inquiry projects
- 🌱 hands on workshops for students
- 🌱 environmental displays
- 🌱 The Great Book Swap!
- 🌱 the 'largest litter free lunch'
- 🌱 links to Australian Curriculum
